Oral divorce between falling and prevention

legal jurisprudence study
Abstract:

The research dealt with the issue of oral divorce from a jurisprudential and legal point of view, and the research clarified there is no separation between Islamic law and the reality of people, as Sharia takes into account situations and outcomes, and there is no conflict between the correct Islamic Sharia and the correct human minds, and whoever thinks otherwise has been stoned wide, and if he thinks or thinks a little he will find the flexibility of Islamic Sharia is not equal to flexibility, ease and ease.

Among the findings of the research is that the suspicions raised about the non-occurrence of oral divorce stem from the failure to differentiate between occurrence and proof, and that Al-Azhar Al-Sharif, with its various institutions, plays a role of great influence and performs its message to the fullest extent of the Islamic world in all ages, and Al-Azhar Al-Sharif has contributed to the response. Scientific knowledge of all that is raised on legal issues.

Also, the divorced one must initiate documenting the divorce as soon as it occurs; Preserving the rights of the divorced woman and her children, because this is detrimental to women and their legitimate rights.

Keywords: Divorce - oral - proof - documentation - legal materials